(Rev. 09/11) Judgment in a Criminal Case Sheet 3 — Supervised Release

Judgment—Page 3 of RUSSELL OCHOCKI

DEFENDANT: CASE NUMBER:

11-CR-122-01(JG)

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of:

Ten (10) years of supervised release.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)

✓ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)

The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)

☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment; or if such prior notification is not possible, then within forty eight hours after such change;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

RUSSELL OCHOCKI DEFENDANT: CASE NUMBER: 11-CR-122-01(JG)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- The defendant is to refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
- The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program, which may include participation in a treatment program for sexual disorders, as approved by the U.S. Probation Department. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such services rendered and/or any psychotropic medications prescribed to the degree he is reasonably able, and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment. The defendant shall disclose all financial information and documents to the Probation Department to assess his or her ability to pay. As part of the treatment program for sexual disorders, the defendant shall participate in polygraph examinations to obtain information necessary for risk management and correctional treatment.
- The defendant shall submit his or her person, residence, place of business, vehicle or any other premises under his or her control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time. The defendant's failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.
- The defendant shall comply with the sex offender registration requirements mandated by the law.
- The defendant shall cooperate with the U.S. Probation Department's Computer and Internet Monitoring Program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices the defendant has access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices, at the defendant's expense. The defendant shall inform all parties that access a monitored computer, or similar electronic device, that the device is subject to search and monitoring. The defendant may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet-capable device, to facilitate our department's ability to effectively monitor his or her Internet-related activities. The defendant shall also permit random examinations of said computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and similar electronic devices, and related computer peripherals, such as CD's, under his or her control. The defendant is prohibited from sending/receiving text (SMS - short messaging service), images, video, or audio (MMS - multimedia messaging service) via a cellular telephone or other capable device as directed by the Probation Department. The defendant is required to notify their mobile telephone provider to prevent their account from sending/receiving SMS and MMS and provide documentation to the Probation Department as proof of this requirement, devices and related computer media, such as CD's, under his control. (This special condition is subject to modification by the supervising officer and the Court upon the defendant's release from custody. This is in anticipation of technological changes and circumstantial changes in the defendant's environment upon release.)
- The defendant is not to use a computer, Internet-capable device, or similar electronic device to access pornography of any kind. The term "pornography" shall include images or video(s) of adults or minors engaged in "sexually explicit conduct" as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2256(2). The defendant shall also not use a computer, internet capable device or similar electronic device to view images of naked children. This includes, but is not limited to, accessing pornographic websites, including websites depicting images of nude adults or minors. The defendant shall not use his computer to view pornography stored on related computer media, such as CD's or DVD's, and shall not communicate via his computer with any individual or group who promotes the sexual abuse of children. The defendant shall not view, purchase or possess videotapes, films, DVD's, magazines, books, or other products depicting minors engaged in sexual activity, or adults representing themselves to be under the age of 18.
- The defendant shall not access any website that permits persons under eighteen years of age to be registered users for the purposes of establishing personal relationships with other users; allows minors to post profiles that provide information about themselves; or allows for the direct or real time communication with other users, without the permission of the Probation Department.
